- Michael always offers sound and considered advice to his clients and argues persuasively in hearings.

- Michael Harmer is indefatigable in his work effort. Michael remains unflappable, professional and courteous even in the most stressful circumstances.

- Michael Harmer is Australia's leading workplace lawyer.

- Michael is highly skilled, provides excellent, considered and balanced advice, and is very cognisant of his client's best interests.

- When I am asked by colleagues and friends who to engage in employment matters, I always recommend Michael Harmer.

- Michael is an exceptional employment lawyer with a great depth of experience and keeps developing amazing talent in his team.

- Given Michael's knowledge of our unique industry, his responsiveness and eye for detail without hesitation Michael is our go to lawyer.

- Michael has the ability to explain very complex legal matters in a way all stakeholders are able to easily understand without losing the key context of these, it is a rare skill that he uses to great effect.

- Michael Harmer's preparation and briefing notes are always comprehensive, easy to follow and provides his clients the ability to raise questions without fear of being made to feel these matters are trivial (as some lawyers do).

- Michael is quietly spoken but makes his points forcefully through clarity in his argument, justification for the rationale and while he may get "curve-balls" come his way he never is rattled and provides his client with confidence through this.

- Michael Harmer is a great developer of talent and he continues to bring on high performing staff members. The staff that have moved on do so based on the guidance and mentoring he has provided them.
